BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland ; one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river : located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut ; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season ; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 14 miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1819.

THE PRESIDENT

The chief Farmer of the United States, elevated by the voice of freeborn millions to the office of chief magistrate, is now visiting the millions over whom he is called to preside. In this tour, he meets not with the cap and knee homage paid to royalty, but be free and heartfelt gratulations of a mighty people. He is greeted not with crawling sycophancy—not with servile adulation, but with a cordial shake of the hand, and with all the free, and unbounded hospitality of the heart. There is something so simple, so plain, so endearing, and so dignified, that we trust there is but one pervading feeling, but one kindling and expansive sympathy, that warms and animates while it enlightens. The monarchs of Europe, deign sometimes to quit the splendid metropolis, and to visit distant provinces! But how do they approach? Do they move with security and with confidence amidst those crowds of subjects, that tender their loyalty and their homage upon their knees! No; they are surrounded by a powerful bodyguard, to keep at respectful distance those who manifest such obsequious promptitude to testify their allegiance. The cannon announces their coming, shew, splendor, parade, and all the pomp and paraphernalia in which, the very essence of monarchy consists, are employed to decorate the gaudy pageant. In all this heartless homage, the language spoken by both parties, when fairly translated into plain English, means this: the monarch on his part says, although my loving subjects, I receive such unbounded proofs of your allegiance, keep at a respectful distance, for amidst all these demonstrations of love my life is in danger. I will receive your protestations of affection, when surrounded by a respectable body-guard. A little further off gentlemen if you please, when you present such testimonials of your loyalty. The other party to this interview, the subjects, declare our sovereign has arrived, and the hour of humility and of prostration now is come; if we do not love our monarch, we fear his bayonets. We are visited by a consuming fire, and humility becomes us; disrespect may bring ruin upon ourselves, and upon our families; prostration our sovereign demands, and prostration he shall have.

Who, on our side of the Atlantic, ever feared the presence of James Monroe? Not one.—We may trace the route of our chief magistrate by some such notice as this,—"Yesterday the President of the United States, arrived in this town from the steam boat; a public dinner will be given to-morrow, in honor of our chief magistrate, and on the next day he departs for such a place by the same conveyance: we shall as soon as we are furnished with a list of the toasts publish them for the gratification of our readers." Sometimes, the president is presented with an address, which he answers in the same plain style of courtesy in which it is presented, and nothing more is thought of this mighty exhibition. To those who are accustomed to consult the columns of our public journals from all parts of the continent, these events excite so little sensibility or interest, that they pass over all these accounts of the reception of the President, without even a perusal. It is taken for granted that our chief magistrate enjoys all the rights of hospitality; that the day in celebration of his arrival is devoted to the enjoyment of convivial mirth, and to all the cordial feelings of the heart, that it is deemed unnecessary to peruse the account of his arrival and reception. This is the manner in which our American Farmer is received, in opposition to that of European monarchs. We would just hint, and we do not know that this principle of decorum has since the late tour of the President, been violated in a single instance; that all indulgence of party, or of sectional spleen is an insult to the chief magistrate, and a violation of the only law held sacred amidst Arabian savages, the law of hospitality; he is the President, not of the federal, or of the democratic party; but the president of all parties, comprehended under the far more dignified name of AMERICANS—he is now, to all political purposes, no more a native of Virginia than of Delaware.

Charleston, July 2.

We learn that his Excellency Gov. Geddes, having received information that Wm. Hayward alias Howard, against whom was a bill of indictment for highway robbery, had escaped to Georgia, made application to the governor of that state for his arrest and commitment until he could be delivered over for trial under the laws of this state. Since which (it is said) he returned to this state, and has actually been committed to the goal of Richland district.

New-York, July 10.

CORONERS REPORT.

The coroner was called yesterday to view the body of Benjamin Jacklin, a colored lad, drowned on the 15th July, at Colzer's Hook. It was suspected that he had been wilfully drowned, and three of his comrades were arrested and taken before the police—but on examination before the coroner's inquest, it was fully proved that all of them were intoxicated. Verdict, accidentally drowned.

At 11 o'clock yesterday the coroner was called to view the body of a male infant, near Potter's Field. Verdict, still born, or strangled in its birth, and inhumanly exposed without burial, by some person unknown.

At 10 o'clock last evening, the coroner visited the body of Richard Jessup, aged 24 years, a native of Dublin (Ireland,) a young man of an amiable and pious deportment, and much respected by his friends, who, in the act of bathing, last evening, at Courtlandt street wharf, was unfortunately drowned. His countrymen and friends are invited to attend his funeral, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, from No. 83 Fulton-street.

Norfolk, July 12.

A few hours before the schooner Mary, capt. Driver, left St. Thomas, the following statement in manuscript was handed to Mr. Leigh, a passenger on board, with a request that he would have it published on his arrival in the U. States:

Arrived at the Five Islands, the Patriot schooner La Constantia, capt. Henry P. Fleischman, after a cruize of three months and a half. In the commencement of the cruize a mutiny took place, in which two of the ringleaders were shot, one wounded, and several severely punished. On the 23d May, the Constantia fell in with a Spanish ship of 22 guns, in the Old Straits, and after an action of one hour and thirty minutes, made a draw battle; very much cut in spars and rigging, and one man wounded. On the 30th fell in with a Spanish two topsail schooner, supposed to be a guineaman, but when alongside found her to be a schooner of 14 long brass guns. In the action which took place with her, the Constantia's gun unfortunately got dismounted, which gave the Spaniard the advantage, and after a dreadful conflict of nearly two hours, capt. F. was obliged to haul off to repair damage.

The Constantia lost her 2d lieut. Chs. Mackey, killed.—Lieutenant Leonard was wounded with a grape shot—had one man killed, and several badly wounded. The Constantia was literally cut to pieces, having 500 cannon and grape shot in hull, rigging and sails.

Newburyport, July 6.

FROM AMSTERDAM,

A passenger in the brig Texel, arrived at Boston on Thursday last, 40 days from Amsterdam, has obliged the editor of this paper with the following commercial intelligence:

"Sailed from the Texel on the 21st May, in company with ship Recovery, Aing, for Philadelphia, with 150 German passengers; ship Nestor, Noble, for St. Petersburg, sailed 4 days previous. Vessels left, ship George Long, Snow from Batavia, rice and coffee, discharging; ship Robinson, Potter, Tillinghast, fm. do. rice, sugar and coffee, discharging; ship William Baker, Whitemore, from do. rice, sugar and coffee, discharging and bound to Providence, in 10 days; ship Union, Oxnard, ready for sea, bound to some part of India. Ship U. States, Wilkinson, fr. Batavia, rice, sugar and coffee, discharging, if not sold, bound home; ship Elizabeth, Adams, for Philad. 130 German passengers to sail 22d May; brig Unity, Thompson, from Baltimore, had arrived at Amsterdam—brig Active, Barry, and Margaret, Harris, from N. Y. ar. 13th May; brig Swiftsure, Faris, fr. Boston, bound to Antwerp, had been ashore on Ireland, near the Texel, with loss of masts and other damage, had discharged her cargo into lighters, and ar. at Amsterdam for repairs. The ship R. Potter, left at Batavia 20th Dec. ship Sidney of Baltimore, just arrived; brig Ariadne Mathuson, just arrived from Providence. Capt. P. of the R. T. reports, that when he left Batavia coffee was selling readily at $34 per picul on shore; sugar 9½ a 10 per picul; rice 45 a 47 per caya of 27 piculs. That since the adoption of the new regulations there, business had been rendered extremely complicated and difficult; so much so that it was impossible for foreigners to do any thing without a merchant, and that they had all agreed not to do any foreign business short of five per cent—thus, in addition to the enormous and unprecedented price of coffee, our merchants will in future be subjected to this tax!—Business of all kinds was dull at Amsterdam when I left. The distressing and languishing state of trade in the other European markets, and particularly in England, causes a similar influence there; a great decline in the value of a number of articles had produced a general discouragement among purchasers, and they buy only what is immediately wanted, so that little or nothing is doing on speculation. The new law respecting a consumption duty on coffee, had after long deliberation, passed both chambers of the states general, and would soon be introduced. The very high price of this article in the colonies, gives, it is true, a firmness among several holders; but the merchants apprehend that the depression in trade at large, and the effects thereof upon this article experienced in England and other places, will more than counterbalance it and prevent a rise taking place, which, under other circumstances, would most probably have followed. A new law respecting a consumption duty on sugar, had also passed the second chamber and no doubt was entertained but it would soon go into operation. The duty on both of these articles falls on the consumer, and not on the importer, who is subjected to certain formalities which the law prescribes. It is 1 stiver per lb. on all coffee and sugar, to be imported, and half a stiver on what is already in the country. There is now a duty of 26s per 100 lbs. on ashes, which causes a great depression on this article The merchants make bad complaints of these and other measures of the king; who, they say, is doing every thing in his power to shackle trade and ruin commerce; of course he is very unpopular with this respectable and valuable class of citizens. The following prices for goods were maintained on the 10th of May—Java coffee, 13 stivers per lb.; do rice 30 a 33s per 100 lbs.; Carolina do. 55 a 58; Java sugar 10 a 10½ groats; Georgia and Kentucky tobacco continued declining; Maryland had began to follow, and after a long stagnation, the price had also considerably declined; good middling parcels cannot be quoted higher than from 10 a 10½ stivers, inferior qualities much lower.

Extract of a letter from Leghorn, dated May 6, received in Philadelphia.

In our last price current of 1st of April, we announced pretty considerable operations during the preceding month, and ventured to hope that our market was likely to improve. We regret to say our expectations have not been realized—the April sales have been very small—the demand for almost every article exceedingly languid, and our stock of some considerably increased by fresh importations.

Cassia.—We have a considerable arrival to our address, direct from Canton—but it is still in quarantine. If fine, our quotation (hardly more) may be got for the whole.

Coffee.—After a long suspension of sales and firmness on the part of holders, which added to the smallness of the stock on hand, had induced us to hope for some improvement in the article, we regret to say two trifling parcels of very good St. Domingo have been allowed to go at Pezzas 21½ and 21¼. We greatly apprehend there is no hope of recovery, unless prices are better supported in England than, contrary to all expectation, they have been within the last few weeks.

Cotton.—Bengal, wholly without demand.

Dyewoods—As last advised, with some increase of our deposit of logwood, and not a single sale to notice, or any inquiry after the article.

Ginger—Equally without demand. Sellers would come forward at pezzas 4½ a 5, but at the moment no better price could be obtained. We hold pretty largely, and are limited to higher rates.

Narkins—We have a very large quantity on hand, just arrived from China. They will not be in pratique till the middle of next month, a circumstance which is against the sale, inasmuch as it protracts their distribution through the country—perhaps also, the quantity arriving at one and the same time is too large for any single market in the Mediterranean. The last sale effected was at livres 5 1-8. We can hardly quote a price now till we see the effect of the above arrival on the market.

Pepper.—We succeeded in selling the cargo of pepper noticed in our last price current, about 160 tons, at ducats 12, with extra allowances reducing the real price to about ducats 11 1-7. A vessel the Eliza, arrived from India a fortnight after with 300 m. lbs. and an importation of 2000 bags from Boston took place at the same time, the former has just been sold for ducats 11—with allowances bringing the real price to about ducats 10¾. Our 2000 bags are still at the Lazzareto. We do not expect more and shall hardly get less than was obtained for the Eliza's. The risk of carrying it on to Autumn, would be too great.

Sugars.—Wretchedly dull. The market depressed beyond measure by constant public sales of damaged crushed arriving from England, which supply the wants of our dealers, except for India Sugars, and prevent their ever recurring to the regular holders. Of these (East India) there are some 300 tons now in quarantine—the price must of course depend on the quality, but they will find a readier vent for the reason just mentioned, than would any other sort.

Tobacco.—None good on hand. Our quotations might, we think, be obtained, but comparatively speaking, this market is so limited for the article that we seldom or never encourage shipments.

Prices at Leghorn May 6.—Jesuits bark 51.73; cassia, fistula, 8.31 per cwt.; Lignea, 37½ per lb.; cinnamon, 27; cloves, 78; cochineal, 6.34; cocoa, Carraccas, 27.25 per cwt.; Trinidad, 20.3; Maranham, 15 23; coffee, middling, 24 to 27; ordinary, 22; Mocha, 28 per lb.; cotton, Pernam. 43½ Louisiana, 33; Georgia, 31; Logwood, 39 34 per ton; Brazilletto, 40 73; fustic, 29 85; Nicaragua, 79 45; hides, Buenos Ayres 15 1.7 per lb.; Brazil, salted, 945; indigo, Guatamala 2 10; Carraccas, 2 10; Bengal 1 40; pepper, 13 per lb.; pimento, 16; rum N. E. 72½ per gallon; sugar, Havana, white, 14 63 per cwt.; brown, 11 51; tobacco, Virginia leaf 11 per lb.; Maryland, 8; elephant's teeth, 128, 6gs. 53.5; Smyrna raisins, 6; hats, chip, pressed with bands, 16 57 per dozen; straw, do from 25 to 42, 82, 80; from 40 to 60, 473 14.

STATISTICS OF EUROPE.

From a Paris paper.—The present population of Europe, amounts to 177,221,600 persons, scattered over 154,450 geographic square miles. This population, considered in an ethnagraphic point of view, comprehends 53,195,000 Teutonians or Germans, 60,586,400 descendants of the Romans, 45,120,000 Celavonians, 3,718,000 Caledonians, 3,499,500 Tartans and Bulgarians, 3,070,000 Meggarians, 2,022,000 Greeks, 1,760,000 Finlanders, 1,610,000 Cimmeranians, 622,000 Basques, 313,600 Guisters, 294,000 Arnauts, 131,600 Armenians, 88,000 Maltese, &c.—There are 1 178,500 Jews, 3,607,500 Mahometans, and 172,432,500 Christians, of whom there are 98,229,000 Catholics, and 41,898,500 Protestants.—Europe is divided politically into 78 sovereign states, nominally independent.—Their aggregate forces in peace, are 1,600,000; and on the war establishment 3,600,000. Their maritime force consists of 409 ships of the line—33 ships of 50 guns—348 frigates—1563 vessels of an inferior class.

HOLLAND.

Before the end of the summer, says a London paper, it is computed that upwards of ten thousand troops will be shipped from Ireland, to fight against the cause of despotism in South America. The major part of these are veterans, who have seen much active service in various parts of the globe. In one brigade alone, there are upwards of 1500 Waterloo men.

A number of foreigners, says a letter from Ghent of May 8, arrived here from all quarters of the continent, for the purpose of seeking the means of embarking, in order to aid the cause of the Independents of South America. The Belgians, who still bear in mind the humiliating and cruel yoke under which their ancestors groaned, are very well disposed towards the cause of the South Americans; and there never was a cause more popular, not only in Belgium, but throughout the continent.

FRANCE.

On the 23d of May, the French budget of expenditures was discussed. M. L. De Villeveque ascended the tribune, and he took occasion to glance at this country, which he termed "a flourishing republic," and observed that the cession of Louisiana consolidated its power. He seemed to dread the probable effects of our power forty years hence, and asks whether France ought not to have interdicted the sale of Louisiana to the United States.

SWEDEN.

The London papers present the following paragraphs on the affairs of Sweden, & the subject of dispute between Bernadotte (Crown Prince) and the neighboring powers. London, June 1.

We have to record this week, a "modest request of two absent" legitimates.—There are strong rumors that Bernadotte has at last been plainly requested by the Emperor Alexander and the King of Prussia "to descend from his throne" The pretended ground of objection is supposed to be his non-performance of the stipulations respecting the debts of Norway, in the treaty of Kiel; but this, as it has been justly observed, could at most only forfeit Norway, and not the Swedish throne, according to all the usages in such cases. If such a demand, however, has been made, the real ground of it is obvious. Bernadotte is an illegitimate prince, a Frenchman, and a republican conqueror.

It is now said that the king of Sweden has not been requested by the modest and holy allies to "descend from his throne." It is only demanded of him, that he should fulfil the treaty of Kiel, and discharge the debt of Norway. Conferences on the subject have taken place in this metropolis; and it is understood, that in case he does not accede to the demand, he will be regularly summoned to do so on pain of the consequences. On the other hand, the king of Sweden is said to be stubborn on this point, and to be forming a camp in Scania for the purpose of intimidating the Danes.

The question is simply this.—You, say the Danes and the allies of the King of Sweden, engaged to pay the debt of Norway, upon being put in possession of it. You refuse to do so, and therefore you do not fulfil the promises you made in the treaty of Kiel. Good;—says the King of Sweden, I was to be put in possession of Norway, but I was not; I had to fight for it, and therefore the treaty cannot be binding on me—Besides, the debt is greater than I took it for.

The reply to this is, that his majesty ought to have had his eyes about him when he undertook to pay the debt, which is true; especially when it is difficult to conceive that he was so blind as he pretends to be. If he lays claim to any innocencies of this sort,

Look in his face, and you'll forget them all.

It is added, that if the sovereigns on their own parts opposed Bernadotte, the Danes could not help it: and here the question, by mutual agreement, stops;—But we must ask, was Sweden put into possession of Norway, without any counter attempts from Denmark? If so, what was the meaning of that sudden appearance in Norway of the Crown Prince of Denmark, of the enthusiastic reception of him, of his speeches, his conduct, &c. &c.? It may be rejoined, that the court disapproved of this proceeding—that it was youthful, romantic, &c. But we know of no disapprobation to that effect. Now, how is this fact got over? There cannot be greater enemies than ourselves to the way and the circumstances under which Norway was given up to Sweden.

SPAIN.

Madrid, May 14.

Mr. Forsyth, the newly appointed minister of the United States at our court, has just arrived here from Cadiz, to replace Mr. Irving. Since the 6th inst. the theatres have been re-opened, and bull baiting has re-commenced. The general edict of the holy office, relative to prohibited books, has not been published either this or the preceding year: it generally took place in former years during lent.

PORTUGAL.

A letter has been addressed to the secretary's at Lloyd's, by A. Andrade, esq. the vice consul of Portugal, Brazil and Algarves, stating that a truce for two years having been signed on the 12th of April last between the kingdom of Portugal and Regency of Tunis, hostilities between the two states had ceased, and their former relations were established for the above mentioned period.

CANADA.

The 37th regiment, now stationed at Montreal, are to be sent to Chambly, St. John's, and Isle aux Noix, and the 76th are expected here from Quebec to relieve them. It is reported that a party of Engineers are to go to Isle aux Noix to put the works at post in a complete state of repair.

MONTREAL AGRICULTURAL REPORT FOR JUNE

From the commencement to the end of this month, the farmers have been employed in sowing their late grain, (chiefly oats and buckwheat) and in planting the remainder of their potatoes. Every thing bore a good appearance from the seasonable and refreshing rains, accompanied with the genial warmth, until the 28th ult. when this district was visited by a severe storm of hail, accompanied with a tremendous gale of wind. The chief sufferers have been the pease, early potatoes, maize, corn and pumpkins. The horse beans have also been much injured, as they were at the time high & in full bloom. It is thought the pease will not be more than half a crop wherever they have been affected with the storm. The potatoes are expected to recover, but being broken down it will make them later. The wheat, which has in general escaped, has a very fine appearance, a part of it is in the ear, and what was sown later has a healthy appearance. The grass crops promise fair, and will be early fit for mowing, some of the turnips are sown, but their fate from the fly is not yet decided.

Extract of a letter from Paris, dated May 19, 1819.

"A very great sensation has been excited here by the reports respecting the King of Sweden. Some deny the truth of them altogether; but there is little doubt of their partial correctness. A Swedish gentleman who arrived in Paris from Stockholm yesterday, speaks of the report as having gained ground in that country, and of a general determination in the Swedish people to assert their rights against the arbitrary and increasing power of the Emperor of Russia; but, at the same time he mentions the existance of a party similar to our Ultra Royalists, who are supposed to be in the interest of Alexander. These reports, true or false, have had the effect of lowering a great deal of the popularity which Alexander acquired in Paris at the expense of the Duke of Wellington, who really did that for which Alexander received the thanks of the French nation.

FROM LIMA.

The brig Boxer, Skiddy, one of the vessels ordered off from Lima, by Lord Cochrane, arrived here yesterday, last from Valdivia, in the short passage of 7o days. Capt. Skiddy has furnished the following from his journal.

"Jan. 16th, arrived at Lima, the Spanish squadron of two frigates of 36 guns each, 3 sloops of war, 2 brigs, and about 2o gun boats, which were moored in line, for the protection of the harbor the patriot squadron under the command of Lord Cochrane being daily expected.

"Feb. 20.—The British frigate Andromache sailed with a convoy of merchant vessels for Valparaiso; also, the Br. sloop of war Blossom, bound to Rio Janeiro, with treasure.

"February 26.—Thick foggy weather; at 3 p. m. saw two frigates standing in for the harbor under the U. S. colors, aiso one 64, and a sloop of war. The forts commenced firing, which was returned, and the action became general. All foreign merchant vessels having been previously ordered outside the line of battle, which placed them between two fires; they however made sail, and were soon out of reach of the guns, without receiving much damage. At 6, the firing on both sides ceased—lord Cochrane anchored about 4 miles from the forts The loss sustained by the Spaniards was 5 killed, and several wounded; the loss of the Patriots could not be ascertained. The captain of the Lautaro, 44, and several other officers were severely wounded. The patriot squadron have captured a schooner from Callimore, about 3 miles from the harbor, manned her and and sent her on a cruize to leeward.

April 19.—The Boxer ar. at Valdivia, where the remainder of the Spanish army, under the command of Sanchez, amounting to 8oo men, had just encamped after marching from Conception.

April 3o.—The armed schooner, formerly the Shelby, of N. Y. ar. from Lima, with despatches and money for the troops. The captain states Lord Cochrane had landed 5oo men at Faucho, a small village to the leeward of Lima. The vice king had dispatched troops to assist the inhabitants. The army at Lima are well disciplined, cloathed and armed, and amount to about 8ooo.

Capt. Skiddy has also favored us with Lima Gazettes to the 23d March.

"March 25—At daylight the Spanish gun-boats made an attack on the Patriot squadron; the action continued about 2 and an half hours, but no material injury on either side.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

ON Monday, the 28th June, eloped from Bell Isle, King George county, Virginia, two negro men, DAVID and JOHN. David is a black fellow, about forty years of age, rather below the middle size, has invariably a smile when spoken to, a good hand in the field, and a tolerable wagoner; his clothing, when he absconded, were an old felt hat, a double milled drab great coat, much worn, lined with red flannel, jacket and pantaloons of domestic cotton and yarn cloth, and a coarse linen shirt. David has a wife belonging to Mr. John Ginger, who some years since moved from Culpeper county to Harrison county, Va. and for the last two years has been in habits of intimacy with a negro woman by the name of Rose, who was sold last fall, by Mrs. Berryman, of King George, to Mr. George Mason, of Gunston, Fairfax co. Va. it is probable he will attempt to get to one of these neighborhoods. Jack is a lively black fellow, about thirty years of age, of the middle size, a little bow legged, rather an awkward hand in the field, having been bred a house servant, at which he excells, rather a surly disposition, and by profession a Baptist. He has a father belonging to Mr. John B. S. Fitzhugh, near Falmouth, Stafford co. Va. and a wife and family belonging to Mr. Thos. Fitzhugh, of Brenton, Prince William co. it is highly probable he is lurking in one of these neighborhoods; had on when he absconded, an old hat, a suit of domestic cloth cotton and yarn, and a brown linen shirt, and carried with him a suit of white domestic jeans. It is probable he and David will change their names and dress. FIFTY DOLLARS will be given for apprehending and securing in jail said negroes, or half for either, if taken in the state of Virginia, or District of Columbia; or the above reward, if taken out of the state, & all reasonable charges, if brought home to the subscriber's residence. Masters of vessels, and others, are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said negroes.

Land for Sale.

I WILL sell a great bargain in a small tract of land, containing about 150 acres, more or less, lying on the Potomac river and Monroe's creek, between the two, on the north side said creek, and forming the mouth, whereon William Williams has for many years resided. This situation would be particularly convenient for any person who follows the water, the Creek forming an excellent harbor, and the neighborhood being wealthy, constant freights might be got. The land is susceptible of great improvement, and is the very best wheat land in all the neighborhood. As it is presumed any person wishing to purchase will first view the premises, a further description is thought unnecessary. For terms apply to the subscriber, near Mattox Bridge, Westmoreland county, Virginia.

SALES AT AUCTION.

Public Sale.

ON FRIDAY, the 9th instant, at 12 o'clock of that day, by virtue of a deed of trust, we will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the premises, that very valuable tract of land in Fairfax county, near Holmes's Run, and about four miles from Alexandria, generally known by the name of containing about 115 acres. This land is about one half in wood—the balance cleared, and in cultivation, with convenient buildings on it, and excellent water near them. A considerable proportion of the open land is fertile, and well calculated for timothy meadows.

The sum of $2,254 77 cts will be required to be paid in cash; for the residue a credit of twelve months will be given from the day of sale, the purchaser paying interest thereon, and giving satisfactory security for the punctual payment thereof. A conveyance will be made when the purchase money and interest is all paid up. If the terms of the sale should not be complied with by the purchaser, the premises will be immediately re-sold to the highest bidder, at the risque of the person to whom it shall have been struck off; and the same course will be repeated until an effectual sale shall have taken place.

R. I. TAYLOR,
JACOB HOFFMAN.

The Sale of the above property is postponed till SATURDAY the 17th inst. at 12 o'clock

Sale of Valuable Land.

BY virtue of a deed of trust, the subscriber will offer at public sale, at Mr. Hardy's tavern, Piscataway, on Thursday, 5th August, next, several tracts or parcels of land, on Mattawoman Run, about three miles from Piscataway, lying partly in Prince George's county, and partly in Charles county, called and known by the names of Strife, Bonton enlarged, Friendship & Smallwood's meadows, Thompson's Hoop Thickets, and four acres of land adjoining, containing in the whole 420 acres, 1 rood, 18 perch. more or less; which said lands were heretofore conveyed by Thomas Mundell, esq. trustee for the sale of the real estate of N. Blacklock, late of Charles co. deceased, to N. F. Blacklock, late of Alexandria, and by him to the subscriber.

These lands have been, I am told, considerably improved lately by the use of clover and plaster: their susceptibility of still further improvement by these easy means, and their nearness to the Potomac, render them certainly very desirable.

Terms of sale—two thousand dollars to be paid on the day of sale, and the balance on the 1st day of January, 1820, when possession will be given. Upon the payment of the whole of the purchase money, the subscriber will execute a good and sufficient deed, conveying to the purchaser all the right and title of the late N. F. Blacklock, subject to the widow's dower.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale.

On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 10 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm. Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
